"Everything Except Temptation" - "I can resist everything except temptation" said Oscar Wilde and this is the title of a play first performed here in 2007. Uncle Stanley, the devil's friend is trying to educate his nephew Spencer, who in turn is trying to train his apprentice (whose name will be revealed on the night!) in the art of temptation so that they can get the victims away from the 'Enemy' to our 'Father Below' with the aid of some very colourful tempters. This take on an original idea by C.S.Lewis in his book "The Screwtape Letters" is in fact a hilarious meditation of modern life, particularly in 'the cathedral of sin' (the school playground!) which we hope you will all enjoy. Performances are on Thursday January 3 and Friday January 4 at 7.30pm and Sunday January 6 at 4.30pm. Tickets will be on sale in the next two weeks and the proceeds from the production will be given to Lawrence House.
