Retiring Collection – this weekend for the Sick and Retired Clergy Fund. While the investment fund has now closed having reached £4.2 million, the need is ongoing, as Fr. Brian will happily tell you if you care to ask him!

It would like to say to anyone who feels far away from God and the Church, to those who think they can no longer change: the Lord calls you too to become part of his people." Pope Francis

"Living the Gospel" – A Service for Churches Together

– our Annual January service takes place here this evening at 6.00pm. Please do try to come. We will be reflecting on the different ways the gospel is lived and proclaimed in our town and the service will be led by our Sunshine Club.

First Communion preparation – the programme for parents and children resumes on Monday this week at 6.30pm in the Centre. These evenings are essential and should not be missed.

Medaille Trust - Gill Spatcher of the Medaille Trust is to give a talk in the Mary Forryan Centre about their work in saving people from trafficking on Thursday this week at 7.30pm. Her talk is reportedly very inspiring indeed.

Schools academy Mass – the 9.45am Mass next Sunday will be led by the students of our three schools.

Young Scriptwriters – we are gathering together a group of young people to help write a play. Our first meeting will be in the Priory next Sunday at 3.00pm.

Mass of Anointing of the sick and Tea

– this will take place in Hinckley on Sunday February 3 at 2.30pm and all our housebound and retired parishioners are invited – invitations available from this weekend. The tea will be prepared by our First Communion parents and we hope that each of the children will be able to meet their prayers partner on this occasion.

A very sensitive memorial – many families have lost their children before, at or just after their birth and may not have had the opportunity to acknowledge them and remember them. This is a very painful matter, and for this reason there will be a special memorial service in Hinckley on Sunday February 10 at 5.00pm at which you may come and light a candle for your children and spend some time with other families in a similar situation.
