Parish Christmas Fair – takes place on Saturday this week from 11.00am-3.00pm. Goods may be brought in during the week and fresh food on Saturday morning. We urgently need help with the gate – see list on the porch notice-board and making teas, as well as one or two other stalls, so please see Fr. Frank today if you can help even if it is only for a while. The Fair will also offer all the usual stalls: Hot and cold food – so come for your breakfast and lunch! Grand Prize Raffle Irish Coffee Wreaths and crafts Toys, Books, DVD's Christmas tombola and gifts Bric-a-brac Cards, gift bags, computer paper Fr. Frank's 'booze box' Games for the children Bottles AlterNativity and of course Santa! Admission is £1 per family or 50p for adults. You will have to pay to park your car for the day so you might as well come in! The raffles will be drawn on Sunday morning.

Present wrapping – if anyone would like to help wrapping presents for our elderly and housebound parishioners, please come along after the 9.45am Mass today

Scouts' Christmas post – is now in operation.

They will post your Christmas cards in the area for much less than the normal postage!

AlterNativity – the scheme is operating until next Sunday after the Christmas Fair, so please make use of it to do your Christmas shopping – forms available in the porch

"Mother Mary" – a musical version of the Christmas story sung to the music of ABBA, will be presented once again by a cast of 75 here in church on Thursday December 14 and Tuesday December 19 at 7.30pm and on tour in Loughborough (Friday December 15) and St. Joseph's, Leicester (Monday December 18). Tickets are £5 for adults, £3 concessions and are on sale from this weekend. Thank you to those who generously have donated sponsorship for the event. If anyone could help making tea for the cast and after the performances, please let us know

Carols Round the Tree - with Churches Together takes place next Friday at 4.00pm in the Market Place in Hinckley. This is a brief and lovely event so wrap up warm and come down.
