"How can I ever thank you?" (2)

The key word in this phrase is the word, 'ever'. We all know what it is to say 'thank you'; we do it every day and we appreciate it when someone says it to us. We do it by word or deed – a letter, a card, a gift, a treat, a hug or whatever means we can find to express what we feel for that other person. But there are times in our lives when we feel so much indebted to someone else for something they might have done for us that we can never thank them enough. We look for ways to show them how much we are grateful and we cannot rest until we have done so. This is a very powerful emotion and is the root of faith in God, when we feel so grateful to him for so many things and look for ways to tell him. Of course not everyone thinks like this. Many people think that God is there for them to do their bidding, provide for their needs and ensure they have a good and fulfilled life, hence their reticence to keep serving him when things do not go too well. This is one of the reasons people often give for ceasing to practice their faith in sharing in the Holy Mass each week. But this is flawed, because it is egocentric; it is centred on 'me' and what I want and need. True love of God and each other is outward looking to him and them and concerns itself with how we can give ourselves to him and them rather than thinking about what we can and should receive from them. "How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me?", we prayed in the psalms from our House Masses this summer. This prayer was written at a time of exile and desperation for God's people, when everything was going wrong for them, and yet they could still think of thanking him and continued the prayer thus: "the cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name".

September Celebrations – there will be a lot happening in September this year, when we mark the 25th anniversary of our church, the departure of Fr. Daniel and the arrival of Fr. Emmanuel. The anniversary will be marked at the SPANNED Mass on September 15 at 2.30pm with Bishop Patrick, and we will be having a meeting to plan catering for our visitors on Sunday September 2 at 5.30pm. Please do offer to help. There will be a farewell gathering for Fr. Daniel on Sunday September 16 at 6.00pm – shared table, but we could do with help making drinks – and a similar get-together to welcome Fr. Emmanuel the following Sunday

First of all: Be free people! Freedom means being able to think about what we do, being able to assess what is good and what is bad. Let us be free for goodness and not be afraid to go against the tide, even if it is not easy! It will make you into people with a backbone who can face life with courage and patience.
